A COURT'S ORDER REINFORCED BY RIFLE

The Latest Step in the O'Neill-Appropriators Controversy.

Eugene Brady O'Neill insists that he was right when he surmised in his complaint against the Appropriators' Canal company, his surmise being based upon the experience of other complainants, that the ordinary injunction is shed off the defendant canal company like water off of a duck's back. The injunction was issued day before yesterday by Court Commissioner Woodward. Service was at once secured upon the officers of the company restraining them from surrounding Mr. O'Neill's premises with an impassable moat over which he would have to construct a drawbridge in regular mediaeval fashion and sally forth clad cap a pie, his limbs protected by greaves, his body by a burnished cuirass, his head by a gleaming helmet, visor down. With his fatal lance in one hand and his trusty Winchester in the other he would be fixed for business. It was to avoid being thus crowded back into bygone centuries that Mr. O'Neill applied to the court.

As soon as the injunction had been issued Mr. O'Neill went out to the works and triumphantly informed the laborers and those in charge of the existence of the order. However, distrustful he might have been of the efficacy of the order he was hardly prepared for the scene of dirt throwing activity which met his gaze early yesterday morning.

The men had almost completed their burrowing under his ditch and were getting ready to put in a flume. He ordered them to stop and again told them about the injunction. They replied that they only knew of it by hearsay from Mr. O'Neill, who was not an officer of the court, and went on with their subterranean operations. Mr. O'Neill went into his house and began overhauling his arsenal. There was a messenger express gun, a receptacle for buckshot with a scattering area of forty feet square at a distance of a rod. This gun was contrary to the game laws of the territory and in contravention of the rules and regulations for settling irrigation disputes in Arizona. It was therefore cast aside for Mr. O'Neill was desirous of keeping safely within the law.

He selected a Winchester and went out to the works again. He proclaimed a state of anarchy on the part of the servants of the Appropriators' Canal company and said that when everybody got to making, interpreting and disregarding law and order it was time for right minded citizens to try to arms. He ordered the ditch vacated and the men climbed out.

An old lady who lives in a tent near by, attracted by the commotion, came up and taking in the situation said that she would have no foolishness in that neighborhood and there should be no shooting off of firearms which might result in injury to innocent parties.

The ditch constructors had been operating without any specific instructions but according to general plans formed the day before. It was so early that the boss who had charge of the construction had not come around. When the boss came he found his men stacked up on the banks, their time going on at the rate of $1.50 a day.

The boss said that he had received word from President Fowler about the injunction but he promised that there should be no more digging until all the parties should find out just where they stood.

Mr. O'Neill deputized another man to wield the Winchester and came to town to procure a citation for the canal company to appear and show why it was not in contempt. On the way he met Mr. Fowler, who said that he had been unable to catch the foreman by telephone but was then on his way to let him into the secret about the injunction.

Mr. O'Neill came on and in the afternoon his attorney, Robert Carey McKean, presented an application for a citation for contempt. It was ordered by Judge Kent to issue and was directed against the Appropriators' Canal company as a corporation. It was made returnable at half past ten o'clock on Saturday morning.

LAST DAY OF GRACE FOR DELINQUENT USERS

Member of Water Users' Association Urged to Come in.

This is the last call to the unpaid members of the Salt River Valley Water Users' association. Today is the last day of grace before their lands will become delinquent. Quite a number have been coming in every day for the last week and settling up, but there is still a longer list than the association had hoped there would be, and tomorrow is the date for its turning over to the hands of the printer. Those who wish to avoid the penalties should make an extra effort today to call at the office and settle up.

After a month's publication, unless the property is paid up, it will be sold at auction in the same manner it is sold by the county for taxes in the event of delinquency. There is then one year for redemption, after which the buyer gets a deed showing that he has bought it for the unpaid assessment. To redeem, the owner will have to pay the assessment, 25 cents for each separate piece of land assessed in his name, and 4 per cent per month on the amount of the unpaid assessment, from the time of the property becoming delinquent. The land owner can see very clearly from this why he should hustle a little and gather up the few dollars today that will be required to keep his acreage from becoming delinquent.

Treating Wrong Disease.

Many times women call on their family physicians, supposing, as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous exhaustion or prostration, another with pain in the back, and in this way they all present alike to themselves and their easy-going and indifferent or over-busy doctor, separate and distinct diseases, for which he, assuming them to be such, prescribes his pills and potions. In reality, they are all only symptoms caused by some uterine disease. The physician's ignorance of the cause of suffering, encourages this practice until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better, but probably worse, by reason of the delay, wrong treatment and consequent complications. A proper medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, directed to the cause would have entirely removed the disease, thereby dispelling all those distressing symptoms, and instituting comfort instead of prolonged misery. It has been well said, that "a disease known is half cured."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native medicinal roots and is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the system.

As a powerful invigorating tonic "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop girls," house-keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequalled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nerve tonic "Favorite Prescription" is unequalled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chills, St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the uterus. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and depression. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. One to three a dose. Easy to take as candy.

MALARIA AN INSIDIOUS FOE TO HEALTH

Malaria is an atmospheric poison which we unconsciously breathe into our lungs through the impure air arising from low, marshy places, stagnant ponds, damp cellars, sewer pipes, improperly ventilated houses, decaying vegetable matter, etc. Day after day these germs and poisons are taken into the lungs, and as the blood passes through them it becomes infected with the poison and in its circulation distributes the microbes of disease to all parts of the body. Malaria is a very insidious disease; it gives no warning of its coming until the circulation is filled with the poison and this foe to health has the system at its mercy. The blood becomes polluted, thin and weak and its slow, irregular circulation fails to properly nourish and strengthen the body. Then the entire system is attacked, and if the germs and poisons of Malaria are allowed to remain the strongest constitution will break down. No one can feel well when the system is in a malarial condition; the vitality is weak, the appetite poor, digestion deranged, the complexion grows sallow and the entire body feels the effects of the poison. Malaria must be removed from the system through the circulation and the only medicine that can accomplish this is S. S. S. It not only cleanses the blood of all unhealthy, morbid matter, but destroys the germs, cures Malaria and restores this vital fluid to a strong, healthy condition. S. S. S. is made of roots, herbs and barks combining purifying and tonic properties which keep the blood free of all poisons and the system in perfect condition. While destroying the germs of Malaria and building up the weak, polluted blood S. S. S. gives tone and vigor to the entire system. Book on the blood and any medical advice without charge.
